Rung 6 Adult-initiated, shared decisions with young people

Rung 5 Young people consulted and informed

Rung 4 Young people assigned and informed

Hart's Ladder

- Input—base activities and learning in youth interests and needs
- Choice—can be limited or open-ended; make it relevant & meaningful
- Shared Leadership—should be formal & informal; develop complexity over time

Engagement

- When Partnering with Youth in a power-sharing entity, engagement is the minimum level of interaction
- Engagement keeps power firmly with adults

Collaboration

- Collaboration seeks youth's input, not just activity
- Collaboration can be limited, or expansive
- Adults control parameters & opportunities for youth voice & choice

Partnership

- Adults remove the power dynamics and other obstacles that prevent youth from being full participants
- Empowers youth as experts in their own experiences, interests & needs
- Youth are invited into the process of developing & managing agency guidelines, policy, program implementation, etc.

Creating Authentic Opportunit ies for Youth to Meaningful Youth Voice

- Youth have self-determination, autonomy, responsibility & accountability
- Requires dedicated planning & scaffolding
- Everyone needs to be committed to both learning & unlearning behaviors
- Adults support & follow Youth Initiative

Considerations for Youth Voice

- Will this be a formal or informal undertaking?
 - Informal practices may be a limited snapshot in time, invite insight on only specific topics or be casual conversations that inform adults
 - Informal practices may support “in the moment” feedback & leadership, but lack long-term commitments & goals
 - Formal Youth Voice Initiatives are agency commitments that cede authority to youth in a manner that provides responsibility & accountability
 - Formal initiatives require youth collaboration from the beginning of the effort!
