MINDFUL MOMENT

Before you begin to read through this newsletter, I want you to take some time for you. Take pause and notice where there is tension in your body. Relax your shoulders and unclench your jaw. Take a few breathes and rest your eyes. This is extremely important if you work in front of a computer screen.

Self care is not a one time event, it is ongoing lifelong practice. There is power in rest and self-care. Stop comparing your productivity to your self worth, resting your body does not equal to being unproductive. "Rest is a beautiful interruption in a world with no pause button." The Nap Ministy

Take a 5-minute rest break! Listen to this meditative rest single from Tricia Hersey a.k.a. The Nap Bishop.

IN THE NAME AND BY THE AUTHORITY OF THE STATE OF IOWA

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, adolescence is a time of remarkable opportunity; and

WHEREAS, Iowa's young people need opportunities to explore new terrains, opportunities to learn and grow in ways that fit a young person, opportunities to try things out in safe ways, and opportunities to make a difference; and

WHEREAS, Iowa's young people need a family that loves, guides, nurtures and holds high, realistic expectations, where young people learn, experience, value and therefore reciprocate characteristics of a healthy relationship: mutual respect, safety, open and honest communication, compromise, trust; and

WHEREAS, Iowa's young people are a force for good in our communities and society, collectively, this generation is key to securing a more sustainable, equitable, and innovative future; Iowans must tap into their energy, leadership, and optimism now and as they transition into adulthood; and

WHEREAS, we encourage Iowans to support and promote the physical, emotional, social, spiritual, and intellectual health of adolescents through the creation of equitable opportunities that open access to environments that make positive health practices the easiest choice; and

WHEREAS, we need an all-hands-on-deck approach. We have a responsibility to improve health in its broadest sense. Imagine a world free of violence, loneliness, poverty, hunger, disease, and want, a world where all life can thrive. With our values as our guide, we continue our work by creating stronger, healthier, and more inclusive communities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kim Reynolds, Governor of the State of Iowa, do hereby proclaim March 19-25, 2023, as:
