

MATCH THE MESSAGE TRACKER

Instructions: After reviewing each media sample listed in the tracker, identify what statement from the Message Bank you think the media is communicating. Type the corresponding letter(s) in the Message(s) fields provided below.

Example:

Media/type: The Notebook/film

Summary of clip: Noah asks Allie out on a date by climbing onto a Ferris wheel and jumping into her seat. Even after she repeatedly says no, Noah dangles from the bar of the Ferris wheel until she finally says yes.

Message(s): B, D

Your turn!

1. Media/type:

Summary of clip:

Message(s):

2. Media/type:

Summary of clip:

Message(s):

3. Media/type:

Summary of clip:

Message(s):

4. Media/type:

Summary of clip:

Message(s):

Message Bank

A. A relationship will save me from my troubles.	B. It's romantic for my partner to threaten harm to themselves or others to get me to do what they ask.	C. I can change my partner if I love them enough or stay with them long enough.
D. It's okay to stay with my partner, even if they use threats, intimidation, isolation, or stalking to control my behavior.	E. Dramatic relationships are more interesting and show the depth of my partner's love for me.	F. It's okay to view women as objects.
G. If my partner is jealous of my friends or other people I interact with, it means they care about me.	H. It's cool if someone significantly older than me shows romantic or sexual interest in me.	I. I don't need to ask for consent before I engage in sexual activity (or I can pressure someone into having sex with me).